

First and Second Conditional

1st Conditional: if + present simple + will + infinitive. (real possibility)

2nd Conditional: if + past simple + would + infinitive. (unreal possibility)

Add the present simple or past simple, and will or would

1. If she _____ hard, she _____ pass the test.
2. If I _____ wings, I _____ fly everywhere! No more traffic!
3. He has insomnia. If he _____ more, he _____ be healthier.
4. If you _____ lost, a policeman _____ show you the way.
5. He _____ go to the beach if it ^{have,} _____ nice on Saturday.
6. We _____ buy a house if we _____ the lottery.
7. They are extremely lazy. If they _____ every day, they _____ get in shape.
8. If you _____ ask nicely, you _____ get anything. (negative x2)
9. If we _____ to school in the US, we _____ have to wear a uniform. (negative x1)
10. If I _____ free on Monday, I _____ come to your birthday.

study, go, sleep, be(x3), win, walk, do not, have,

First and Second Conditional

1st Conditional: if + present simple + will + infinitive. (real possibility)

2nd Conditional: if + past simple + would + infinitive. (unreal possibility)

Add the present simple or past simple, and will or would

1. If she studies hard, she will pass the test.
2. If I had wings, I would fly everywhere! No more traffic!
3. He has insomnia. If he slept more, he would be healthier.
4. If you are lost, a policeman will show you the way.
5. He will go to the beach if it is nice on Saturday.
6. We would buy a house if we won the lottery.
7. They are extremely lazy. If they walked every day, they would get in shape.
8. If you don't ask nicely, you won't get anything. (negative x2)
9. If we went to school in the US, we wouldn't have to wear a uniform. (negative x1)
10. If I am free on Monday, I will come to your birthday.

Go, study, have, sleep, be(x3), win, walk, do not.