

2nd , 3rd and mixed conditionals

Please refer to YouTube video.

2nd conditional:

if + past simple, would + infinitive

3rd conditional:

if + past perfect, would + have + past participle

Fill in the blanks with the 2nd or 3rd conditional

1. If you (drive)_____more carefully, you(not have) _____ so many accidents.
2. If I (wake)_____up earlier, I (not be)_____late.
3. We (go)_____if we (found)_____a babysitter.
4. If John (live) _____closer, I (see)_____him more.
5. If I(see)_____ a bear, I(run) _____away.

Match the sentence halves to create mixed conditionals

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|--|
| 1. If I were more outgoing | a. We would have bought that house. |
| 2. If you had sold more product. | b. You would have made more money |
| 3. If he hadn't won that trip | c. I would have invited them for dinner. |
| 4. If we were rich | d. I would have a better job now. |
| 5. If I had worked harder at school | e. He wouldn't be married now. |

2nd , 3rd and mixed conditionals

Please refer to YouTube video.

2nd conditional:

if + past simple, would + infinitive

3rd conditional:

if + past perfect, would + have + past participle

Fill in the blanks with the 2nd or 3rd conditional

1. If you (drive) drove more carefully, you (not have) would not have so many accidents.
2. If I (wake) had woken up earlier, I (not be) would not have been late.
3. We (go) would have gone if we (found) had found a babysitter.
4. If John (live) lived closer, I (see) would see him more.
5. If I (see) saw a bear, I (run) would run away.

Match the sentence halves to create mixed conditionals

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|--|
| 1. If I were more outgoing | a. We would have bought that house. |
| 2. If you had sold more product. | b. You would have made more money |
| 3. If he hadn't won that trip | c. I would have invited them for dinner. |
| 4. If we were rich | d. I would have a better job now. |
| 5. If I had worked harder at school | e. He wouldn't be married now. |