

Modal verb Should

Please refer to YouTube video.

We use should/shouldn't to give advice or suggest an idea to another person. We also use it to express obligations or expectations.

Ex: You should quit smoking.
They should arrive soon.

buy a new one

pick up bread

finish the application

wash your hands more often.

study harder

eat so much sugar

go home

drive your car everyday

Match the sentence halves with should or shouldn't to make new sentences.

1. It's getting late, everyone _____.
2. The dress fits you perfectly you _____.
3. If you want to pass the final exam, you _____.
4. We will have guests for dinner. On the way home from work you _____.
5. To avoid getting sick, you _____.
6. You _____, to save the environment.
7. My doctor told me that I _____.
8. The deadline is tomorrow you _____.

Modal verb Should

Please refer to YouTube video.

We use should/shouldn't to give advice or suggest an idea to another person. We also use it to express obligations or expectations.

Ex: You should quit smoking.
They should arrive soon.

buy a new one

pick up bread

finish the application

wash your hands more often.

study harder

eat so much sugar

go home

drive your car everyday

Match the sentence halves with should or shouldn't to make new sentences.

1. It's getting late, everyone should go home.
2. The dress fits you perfectly you shouldn't buy a new one.
3. If you want to pass the final exam, you should study harder.
4. We will have guests for dinner. On the way home from work you should pick up bread.
5. To avoid getting sick, you should wash your hands more often.
6. You shouldn't drive your car every day, to save the environment.
7. My doctor told me that I shouldn't eat so much sugar, 8. The deadline is tomorrow you should finish the application.