

Simple Conjugations

Conjugate the verbs with the “s” form or “ed” form.

1. Mary always _____ to school in the morning. (to walk)
2. My parents got _____ in that church. (to marry)
3. He _____ engineering for three years before he got that job. (to study)
4. The store _____ early today. (to close)
5. My mother _____ dinner every night. (to cook)
6. She _____ my perfume last night. (to use)
7. He _____ to the gym every night. (to go)
8. Dad _____ to the office on Mondays. (to drive)
9. I _____ my teacher after school. (to help)
10. We _____ our parents if we could go to the party, they said no. (to ask)

Conjugate the verbs with the “ing” form.

1. Why are you _____? (to stop)
2. _____ a lot of money won't make you happy. (to have)
3. I'm _____ to see that concert! (to die)
4. _____ a new language can be very difficult. (to learn)
5. There is no point in _____! (to argue)

Simple Conjugations

Conjugate the verbs with the “s” form or “ed” form.

1. Mary always walks to school in the morning.
2. My parents got married in that church.
3. He studied engineering for three years before he got that job.
4. The store closes early today.
5. My mother cooks dinner every night.
6. She used my perfume last night.
7. He goes to the gym every night.
8. Dad drives to the office on Mondays. (to drive)
9. I helped my teacher after school.
10. We asked our parents if we could go to the party, they said no.

Conjugate the verbs with the “ing” form.

1. Why are you stopping? (to stop)
2. Having a lot of money won't make you happy. (to have)
3. I'm dying to see that concert! (to die)
4. Learning a new language can be very difficult. (to learn)
5. There is no point in arguing! (to argue)